visionPDX Partners

A visionPDX partner denotes an organization that has made a significant donation, in-kind or otherwise, to visionPDX.

Ashforth Pacific

Ashforth Pacific donated office space to visionPDX for over a year. Based in Portland, Oregon, Ashforth Pacific, Inc. is an investor and developer of commercial office real estate and provides integrated property management and construction services.

Comcast

Comcast showed the visionPDX Public Service Announcement on one of its stations in May, 2007 over 300 times.

PIVOT (Partners in Vocational Opportunity Training) Job Corps

PIVOT students helped visionPDX with data entry on thousands of questionnaires. In return, students met with the Mayor, spoke to City Council, and attended the annual State of the City address in 2007. Support from Cindy Sorum, Employability Specialist; Carolyn Schoenemann, Academic Instructor; and 27 student volunteers.

Portland Community Media

PCM is working with visionPDX to create a documentary of this once-in-a-generation process. They've dedicated countless hours to capturing the work of our grantees and volunteers. They've also produced several shorter videos for our use which are also available on our website.

Sojourn Theatre

Sojourn and visionPDX teamed up for a year-long partnership which culminated in the development of One Day, a performance about eight characters in a day full of choices in our community. The collaboration, led by Artistic Director Michael Rohd, used research and data gathered by visionPDX and first-person interviews by Sojourn to create this innovative performance piece. The show was performed 12 times around the city in September and October 2006.

Steps to Success

Steps to Success participants provided data entry support to visionPDX for hundreds of surveys.

Technical Assistance for Community Services

TACS partnered with visionPDX in the planning of the visionPDX grants program. TACS offered workshops on filling out the budget portion of the grant application and made technical assistance available to grant applicants.

Visioning Capstone Class

Students in Professor Chet Orloff's Portland State University Visioning Capstone Class contributed to the visionPDX outreach efforts and critiqued our process during the following quarters:

- Summer 2005
- Fall 2005
- Summer 2006
- Spring 2007
- Summer 2007
